Accounting Internship Program

During a three-month summer internship, you will work in one accounting group to learn a segment of oil and gas accounting policy and procedure. To understand how the overall energy industry can impact accounting practices, workshops are offered in various disciplines such as Geology and Geophysics, Petroleum Engineering and Drilling, Marketing, Field Operations and Finance. You will also learn the culture of Anadarko and interact with upper management.

Rotational Program Can Accelerate Your Career

The two-year rotational accounting program exposes you to multiple facets of the oil and gas business and enables you to build a valuable network of contacts throughout Anadarko. You will complete eight three-month rotations through Anadarko's accounting departments. Upon completion of the program, you will be placed in one of the departments within the company based on your interests and company needs.

The internship and rotational programs offer experiences in:

- Internal Audit
- Financial Accounting and Reporting
- Operational Accounting including, Revenue, Marketing, Property and Cost

Discover Your Potential

Anadarko employees are given the chance to work on challenging and rewarding projects across many horizons. We give you responsibility from day one and provide the support you need to make meaningful contributions to our team. Our success is driven by great thinking, a willingness to share and grow knowledge and a common desire to find new ways to solve challenges. At Anadarko, you gain real experience and discover your potential.

"From the moment my feet hit the ground here at Anadarko, I have been given the opportunity to engage in challenging and rewarding assignments. In addition Anadarko has helped me to be a better accountant and a better individual by providing personal and professional development. Anadarko also invests in my future by encouraging continuing education through classes, training, and assistance in obtaining professional certifications. I have also enjoyed contributing to the community through Anadarko's organized service projects. Still, they do all this, while also emphasizing a positive work-life balance; providing me with the satisfaction of working hard and enjoying a life outside of work"
