Engineering

New engineers most likely start their careers in field operations, enabling you to watch your recommendations being put to the test. Anadarko offers opportunities in drilling, reservoir and production engineering, both domestically and internationally.

An Internship Can Accelerate Your Career

Discover the opportunities at Anadarko through our series of petroleum engineering internships. Launch your career as early as the summer before starting college. Anadarko provides diverse, exciting and rewarding internship opportunities each summer. Five distinct internships are available to fit your needs and abilities. Working in teams with other Anadarko professionals, you'll explore what it's like to have your knowledge count and discover that your contributions matter.

Discover Your Potential

Anadarko employees are given the chance to work on challenging and rewarding projects across many horizons. We give you the responsibility from day one and provide the support you need to make meaningful contributions to our team. Our success is driven by great thinking, a willingness to share and grow knowledge and a common desire to find new ways to solve challenges. At Anadarko, you gain real experience and discover your potential.

"Anadarko's culture strongly emphasizes a work-life balance and believes in an open-door policy that promotes open communication. Its people demonstrate sincere and genuine demeanor and industry knowledge through providing guidance to interns and new hires. Just as important, Anadarko provides the opportunity to work in numerous portions of its worldwide portfolio of assets while developing your technical skills and managerial career."

"As an engineer at Anadarko, I enjoy the opportunity to use my strengths in math, science, critical thinking and problem solving abilities. I'm also exposed to diversity in my daily responsibilities, working on multiple assignments on a daily basis, traveling to locations across the world and learning about numerous processes throughout the life of a well."
